PAYING THE CITY'S BLIND. NEARLY 500 PERSONS BACH RECEIVED DOLE OF $50 YESTERDAY.

A Strange Gathering on the Charities Pier tost of the Women Said "God Bless You' One Old Man Wept for Joy-To 111 Relpless Blind Their Pensions Will Be Carried.

Nearly five hundred blind men and women visited the Department of Charities, at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street, yesterday, and received each $50 in gold, the city's annual donation toward their support. By law the Board of Estimate is directed to set aside $75,000 annually to be distributed among the city's blind. Of this sum $30,000 is reserved for the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx. Yesterday $24.450 in shining gold was given away to the blind of the two boroughs whose names were properly listed. Their claims to the money have been under investigation during the last

The blind pensioners had each been notified by postal card to be at the office of the Superintendent of Outdoor Poor at 11:30 o'clock. Most of them came accompanied by friends or relatives. Not half a dozen were dressed in a manner to indicate that the $50 would be anything but a most necessary addition to their assets. Little children led old men and women; city mission workers guided the blind of their districts. Black and white, Jew and gentile, Irish and Slav stumbled along Twenty-sixth street toward Supt. Blair's office, while the neighborhood looked on from doorsteps and windows and compared the procession with those of previous years. For six hours the blind were coming and going through the street. A score arrived before 8 o'clock. Next Monday Assistant Supt. William Walsh, who for twelve years has dealt with the blind pensioners at his office and visited them at their homes will start with Nicholas Morell, a city paymaster, on a round of visits to the homes of about 111 blind men and women whose names and addresses are fisted but who didn't turn up at the distribution yesterday. Instead of gold the officials will take along bills to distribute because it would be unnecessarily hard work to lug $5,550 in gold up and down tenement stairs, even though the load decreased at the rate of $50 a visit. Thus the blind sick and lame will soe a visit. Thus the blind sick and lame win receive their dole.

There were many among the pensioners yesterday whose blindness was but a part of the afflictions heaped upon them. Some were clearly idiots. One woman had lost her sight, hearing and speech in a railroad wreck. Her nose and ears were gone and a shapeless orifice served her for a mouth. She was excitedly interested in all that pertained to her outing. The greater proportion of the pensioners seemed in good spirits. All knew the voice and presence of Assistant Superintendent Walsh.

Billy Scully, the blind newspaper dealer at Ninth avenue and Thirty-ninth street, with his blind wife Josephine and blind father-inlaw, Tom Murphy, retired, were among the early comers.

"How are you, Billy?" asked the assistant erintendent.
Ha—is that yerself, Mr. Walsh?" responded
y. "Y're looking well. How's the rheu-iz? Did you see my wife here? I left her h another blind feller an I guess he sneaked mati2? Did you see any my guess he sneaked with another blind feller an' I guess he sneaked with her. Well, I kin get another."

A minute later a policeman brought Mrs. Scully to the distribution table and she began to inquire for "me husband, Billy, a fat feller." The two were united, Father-in-law Murphy was sorted out, and the trio were sent on their way with $150 in gold. Several times during the distribution husband and wife each collected $50. With plenty of seats and fanned by river breezes the blind folk and their guides did not wife a from the heat.

of the recipients.

Many were confused and helpless. One old man sobbed when they gave him his $50. Most of the old women said "fod bless you" to Policeman Brush, and he responded, "You're welcome." Some of the few pensioners who were without friends started off confusedly in the unfamiliar surroundings. Somebody asked Charles Berkowitz, a pedier, where his friends were.

were.
"My stick is my best friend," he answered, and soon tapped his way out from the pier. Some one else wanted to guide William Alexander Terry as far as the sidewalk.
"Sure, I sweep the hallways at 9 Pell street where I'm the janitor, an' I turn off the lights an' keep an eye on the tenants. I guess I can find me way out of here," he responded. And he guessed right.

me way out of here, he responded.

There are 600 names on this year's list. The highest previous number was 512. That was three years ago. The blind applicants for the $50 must be American citizens, must have been residents of New York city for two years before the state of the applying and must not have been in an insti-tution for the blind for one year previous to the date of distribution. Alfred Burnham o the date of distribution. Alfred Burnham of 78 Front street, Brooklyn, a newspaper vender, who stands at the Fulton ferry, has been collecting the varying amounts bestowed annually by the city on its blind for thirty-three years. The dole has been distributed for thirty-five years. Formerly the applicants got a prorata share of the amount appropriated, their portions varying in different years from $36 to $59. Of yesterday's recipients only one, a Mrs. Landers, who was entitled to a $50 donation, was unable to collect it because of a nistake in making out the rolls. She will receive a letter to the City Paymaster next week suthorizing the payment of $50 to her.

SCHOOLBOYS NAB A BURGLAR. He'd Got Away From Them Once, but They

Caught Him a Fortnight Later. Samuel Brown, a negro, of 232 West Sixty-second street, was locked up in the West Sixtyeighth street police station last night on a charge of burglary. The complainant against him was fourteen-year-old Joseph Ackenheir of 143 Amsterdam avenue. Joe returned home from school on the afternoon of June 12 and found the burgiar in his parents' rooms. He asked Brown what he was doing there. "Waiting to see your father," replied Brown.

You're lying," said the boy; "my father is You're iging," said the boy; "my lather is dead. I guess you are a burriar."

Brown hit the boy on the head and fled to the roof. Ackenheir and another boy, named Daniel Reilly, pursued him. They saw him disappear through the scuttle of a house in Sixty-fourth street, but Brown threatened to kill the boys if they followed him further, so they abandoned the chase and went to the police station for help. Brown was far away when a policeman returned with them.

doned the chase and went to the police station for help. Brown was far away when a policeman returned with them.

Last night the boys saw Brown in a delicatessen store in Amsterdam avenue buying pigs' knuckles and sauerkraut. They called Detectives Deering and Keir, and he was arrested. When he was searched at the police station several pieces of jeweiry were found in his pockets. A stickpin was identified by Ackenheir as the property of his mother.

DR. BLANCHETT UNDER CHARGES. Church Committee Sits Late Into the Night Over His Case.

The controversy between the rector and the vestry of Zion P. E. Church of Douglaston was reopened yesterday in a hearing before a subcommittee of the Standing Committee of the diocese of Long Island. The hearing, which was held at the Church Club in Brooklyn, commenced early Wednesday afternoon and did not close until after 20'clock yesterday morning. The sub-committee will make a report of their findings in the matter to the central body to-day. he controversy was the outcome of remarks hade by the Rev. J. B. Blanchett, rector of Zion made by the Rev. J. B. Blanchett, rector of Zion Church, in one of his sermons.

It is charged that Dr. Blanchett said that certain trust funds of the church had been misappropriated, and that he did not believe that the moneys had been used honorably. The rector was requested to resign, but he refused to do so, and charges were preferred against him W. R. Griffichs appeared at the hearing for the vestry and Dr. Blanchett was represented by Ralph W. Kenyon. Howard A. Sperry appeared for the congregation. The sub-committee was made up of Alexander E. Orr. the Rev. Henry C. Swentzel and Wilhemenas Myerrederse.

The Rev. J. H. Selden Installed.

GREENWOOD, Conn., June 28. The Rev. oseph H. Seiden of Elgin, Ill., was installed tonight as pastor of the Second Congregational Church here. The Rev. Dwight Hills of Plym-euth Church preached the sermon.

AT THE STATE CAMP.

Rainstorms and Great Heat at Camps Ros and STATE CAMP, PEEKSKILL, June 28 .- The flerce neat was tempered by refreshing breezes at Camp Roe and at Camp Townsend to-day. or the two regiments encamped would never have been able to stand the drills as they did At Camp Roe the Fourteenth had an unusually jolly night and day. Last night after the camp was established and a good bath had been taken in the lake, the guardsmen enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content. There are a great many good singers in the regiment and a concert has been arranged for to-night. Corporal William Koysh, who was fined $25 by Judge Wells, in Peekskill, on Tues-day, was reduced to the ranks last night. Col. Clayton thought that he had been pretty severely punished, so the reduction was not read in general orders.

The Fourteenth had a company drill in exended order this morning and battalion drill commencing at 9:30. On account of the heat Col. Clayton did not continue the drills as long as usual and the men were back in their quarters before 11 o'clock without a casualty. The health of the camp is excellent. Col. Chapin and Capt. Lyon who rode over from Camp Townsend to-day were the only visitors from headquarters. A feature of the camp at present is the tall flagpole at the entrance, from which flies a large American flag. The Fourteenth Regiment is the first to holst the flag there. Col. Clayton said that the boys were not going to be there long, but that they might as well raise old Glory, if only for forty-eight hours. A guard paces back and forth beneath the flag and orders every passing soldier and civilian to "uncover." The men are being taught to salute the flag as they never were before. At one time this afternoon 500 guardsmen were sporting in the cool waters of Lake Mohegan.

There was to have been a guard mount toas usual and the men were back in their quar

Mohegan.

There was to have been a guard mount tonight at 6:15 and later evening parade, but a severe thunderstorin which broke at 6 o'clock spoiled these calculations. The regiment will return to Camp Townsend to-morrow. Col.
Clayton will not hurry his command back.

At Camp Townsend it has been an unusually quiet day. The drills began with a company manosuvre in extended order before breakfast.
From 9:30 till 11:30 there was a battalion drill in battle formation. Ten rounds of ammunition per man were fired. It was fearfully hot, but not a man fell out. The afternoon was given up to keeping cool. up to keeping cool. Gen. Roe and his staff started on horseback

Gen. Roe and his staff started on horseback for Camp Roe at $30 o'clock to-night and were caught in the thunder shower. This storm, which was preceded by a heavy blow, broke ever Camp Townsend as the men were coming from supper and there was a scurrying for shelter. There was no evening parade to night on account of the storm.

The Fourteenth Regiment will leave Camp Townsend at 8 A. M. Saturday, and the Fortyseventh at 2 P. M. Upon the departure of the latter a national salute will be fired. The payrolls will be made up to-morrow and the troops rolls will be made up to-morrow and the troops will receive their pay early Saturday morning.

ROBBERY AT A CLUBHOUSE.

Four Arrests Made on Suspicion-Denials by All the Prisoners.

Another arrest was made by the police of Rockaway Beach yesterday in their search for the culprits who robbed James E. Brower, a wealthy member of the Undine Club at Holland's station, Rockaway Beach, of $2,400 worth of jewelry. Mr. Brower lives at 385 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. He was formerly President of the German-American Savings Bank. Mr. Brower had been spending a few days at the Undine Club and last Tuesday he started for the city about 9 o'clock in the morning, leaving a number of articles of jewelry in his

With plenty of seats and fanned by river breezes the blind felk and their guides did not suffer from the heat.

Having in view the large number of persons to be dealt with Supt. Blair had arranged for the Charities Department outside his office. As the pensioner's arrived they were marshailed in line, with gaps to allow other persons to reach the steamers moored to the pier. One by one, with their accompanying guides, they were led to Supt. Blair's desk, their postal cards were exchanged for cards on each of which was written the pensioner's name and address. Each card was an order on the paymaster for 530. Fifty feet away and right opposite the entrance to the New York Yacht Club's landing station the paymaster stood at a table with handy little piles each consisting of two twenty dollar gold pieces and one ten dollar piece. The pensioner's card was examined before he got to this table to make sure that the name son it sarreed with that on the paymaster's list and then Policeman Jacob Brush from the City and then Policeman Jacob Brush from the City and the proper moment helped the pensioner to close it, if necessary. During the whole payment not a single gold piece fell from the hands of the recipionts.

Many were confused and helpless. One old man sobbed when they gave him his $50. Most of the old women said "God bless you' to Policeman Brush, and he responded, "You're welcome." Some of the few pensioners who

BOY LIKED TO SEE GIRLS' FRIGHT. So He Smashed the Factory Windows With

Jacob Manz, a manufacturer of pocketbooks at 322 South Second street, Williamsburg, complained at the Bedford avenue police station week ago that for more than a month many lights of glass had been broken in his factory in the most mysterious manner. Often the young women employed there had become frightened, he said, and had fled from the building. Manz said that at least fifty windows had been shattered and that all efforts to find the cause or detect the culpit had been in vain.

the cause or detect the culpit had been in vain. Policemen in plain clothes were sent to the factory, but the window breaking continued. On Wednesday Manz caused a cage to be built in a corner whence a trusted employee could see everything going on on that floor and also command a view of the street.

At the height of the storm in the afternoon there was a crash of glass and the watcher in the cage saw Kosmer Kojaychaf, a Pole, if years old, who was employed in the place, work the mischief. He had thrown stones at a front window and broken several lights of glass. The young women on the floor were under the impression that the factory had been struck by lightning and they made a rush for the doors.

doors.

Kojaychaf acknowledged his guilt and said that it was he who had smashed all the windows, and that his only object in doing it was to see the girls fright. The boy's pockets were filled with stones. A policeman took the boy to the station house, where he was held on a charge of malicious mischief. When he was arraigned yesterday in the Lee avenue police court he told Magistrate Voorhees that he was sorry for his exploits and said that he didn't realize the amount of damage he had done. He was paroled pending a hearing. He lives at 89 South First street.

DELEHANTY RETIRED FROM NAVY. He Will Not Go to Manila, but Will Remain

Governor of Sattors' Snag Harbor. The trustees of Sailors' Snug Harbor at New Brighton, Staten Island, paid their annual visit to the institution yesterday. Five of the seven trustees and a party of guests arrived on the Government tug Scout at the Snug Harbor wharf at 12:30 o'clock. They were met by Governor Delehanty and were escorted through a double line of the inmates.

met by Governor Decenarity and were escorted through a double line of the inmates, numbering about 800, to the music hall. The old tars fell in behind them and took seats in the hall. Morris K. Jesup, President of the Board of Trustees, made an address, in the course of which he said:
"You have undoubtedly seen in the newspapers the report that Governor Delehanty was about to leave the institution. I am glad to say that he will not go, but is to remain at the institution. Moreover, he is here to stay."
Loud applause greeted these words. A board of medical officers appointed to examine Commander Delehanty as to his fitness for sea duty reported him to be not equal to active service, and he has been retired from the Navy with the rank of Captain.
Dr. J. R. Tryon, a retired Surgeon of the Navy, was then introduced by Mr. Jesup as the physician appointed to assume charge at the institution. Dr. Tryon succeeds Dr. H.
D. Joy, who some time ago preferred charges against Governor Delehanty. The governor was acquitted after an investigation by the Board of Trustees.

DIAMOND DEALING COP BOUNCED Pawned Rings Before He Paid for Them-Alleged Blackmatler's License Revoked. The Police Board yesterday di-missed from the force Policeman Emil H. Sauer of the Eldridge street station, who was tried recently on six complaints of having pawned diamond rings he had obtained from jewellers on memorandum. Inspector Cross begged for Sauer's retention on the force, but President York remarked that the man was clearly guilty of larceny. The license of Special Policeman John Lersett, who has been stationed at the Pabst Hotel, was revoked in consequence of a report that he had blackmailed women of ill repute. Central Office Detective Flay was detailed to attend the Democratic Convention at Kansas City to keep an eye out for New York crooks. Policeman Neil Hooley of the Church street station was fined three days psy for insolence to Frederick W. Lyster, an elderly musician. on six complaints of having pawned diamond couses a Steel and Wire Director and Three Others of Attempted Blackmail-They Had Previously Had Him Up on a Charge of False Pretences Which Charge Collapsed. James Wilson of Larchmont, who describes imself as a capitalist with an office at 32 Broadway Edward C. Talcott, who lives at the New York Athletic Club and is in the leather beit business at 140 Broadway, and Daniel R. Hen dricks, a broker of 40 Wall street who lives at 541 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, were arraigned before Magistrate Pool in the Centre street police court yesterday afternoon charged with attempted blackmail. They were admitted to $1,000 bail each for examination on July 6. A complaint has been made in the same case against Stewart H. Chisholm, a director of the American Steel and Wire Company, Chisholm is now in the West.

HORSELESS WAGONERS' ROW

PROMOTER HAS MEN ARRESTED WHO HAD HIM ARRESTED.

The complainant against the prisoners is John W. Eisenhuth President of the Eisenhuth Horseless Vehicle Company, which has offices at 40 Wall street. Eisenhuth says he held patents on an electric wagon and formed a company to manufacture and introduce automobiles under his patents. The concern was ncorporated under the laws of the State of Maine with a capital of $10.000,000. Wilson, Talcott, Hendricks and Chisholm, according to Eisenhuth, became stockholders and directors, and are said to have put in $18,100 cash on Risenbuth's representations.

According to the complaint, the four men fifth street early last April and demanded to see him. Eisenhuth was ill in bed and the men saw him. Eisenhuth was ill in bed and the men saw his wife Elia. It is charged that in the presence of Mamie Read, a nicee of Eisenhuth, the four men demanded of Mrs. Eisenhuth thather husband pay over to the stockholders $10.000 in cash and give them three-fourths of the stock of the Horseless Vehicle Company. The demand, it is alleged, was made under a threat that unless it was acceded to, Eisenhuth would be arrested for obtaining money under false pretences and that his past life in San Francisco and other Western cities would be exposed. Eisenhuth did not hand over the money and stock. On April 25 he says he got this letter, signed by the four men he accuses:

John W. Eisenhuth.

stook. On April 25 he says he got this letter, signed by the four men he accuses:

John W. Eisenhuth.

DRAR SIR: As a committee appointed by the Board of Directors of the Eisenhuth Horseless Vehicle Company at a meeting held Wednesday. April 18, we have to inform you as a result of our investigations that you have, in our judgment obtained money under faise representations, and have spent money for purposes inconsistent with your statements and promises, and, in fact, have converted a large portion to your personal use, instead of to the building and completing of various motors and vehicles repeatedly asserted by you to be under construction, and for which said money was given to you; and whereas you have not fulfilled to our satisfaction any of your promises or agreements, it becomes our duty to inform you that we require you to reimburse the company for all the money spent by you other than for the benefit of the company as previously stated, or pay to the treasurer of the company it is such cheld by yourself and family in this company to said company, to be issued to other stockholders protate.

This is a measure of justice and to endeavor to demonstrate the practicability of the company is patents. Having been unable to see you since the appointment of this committee, we take this means of noulf, ing you of our position and request you to let us have your reply on or before the first day of May. In the event of your not complying with the above, action will be taken to force the first day of May I have a surrested on Wilson's complaint.

May. In the event of your not complying with the above, action will be taken to force the Issue.

Eisenhuth did not answer the letter, and on May 23 he was arrested on Wilson's complaint on a warrant issued by Magistrate Hogan in the Yorkville police court, charging him with obtaining money from Wilson, Talcott, Hendricks and Chisholm under false pretences. He was held in $5.000 bail for trial, but the Grand Jury three out the complaint.

The warrants for the men arrested yesterday were issued by Magistrate Mayo in the Centre street police court and given to Detective O'Connor of the Court Squad to execute. Talcott was arrested several days ago and gave ball then, and Wilson and Hendricks, hearing that warrants had been issued for them, went to the police court and gave themselves up. They were represented in court by Lawyer Miller of Miller. Decker & Miller. Nestor A. Alexander of 48 Cedar street and Carter, Hughes & Dwight of 98 Broadway appeared for Eisenhuth.

The prisoners were inclined to treat the matter lightly and appeared to look on their arrest in the light of a loke. They declined to discuss the case and referred all questions to their counsel, who also declined to discuss the case and referred all questions to their counsel, who also declined to discuss the case and referred all questions to their counsel, who also declined to discuss the case and referred all questions to their for Eisenhuth. Chisholm is said to be on his way here from Chicago.

LOYAL TO THEIR OLD PASTOR.

Congregational Church in Brooklyn. A farewell reception was given on Wednes day evening to the Rev. Richard Meredith, th retiring pastor of the Park avenue branch of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church, in Brooklyn, who starts on a voyage around the world on July 4. There were many evidences of the esteem in which the Rev. Mr. Meredith is held by the congregation, and deep regret was expressed at the hasty acceptance of his resignation by the officers of the parent church, of which his younger brother, the Rev. Dr. R. R. Meredith, is pastor. A netition signed by nearly every member of the branch church, urgently requesting his reinstatement as pastor, was forwarded yesterday to C. D. Wood, President of the Board of Trustves of the Tompkins Avenue Church. It is said that if this action is not taken a new church will be organized with the Rev. Mr. Meredith, in response to a cirect inquiry whether he would be willing to resume his pastoral relations with the Park avenue congregation, said: "I am coming back, I am coming back. I hope to see you again and to prosecute the work with you." in Brooklyn, who starts on a voyage around TOUGH GIRL FROM CONEY ISLAND Sent to the House of Refage for Preferring a "Beauty Show" Life to Home.

Sadie Friedman, 15 years old, who until re cently was the star attraction in a Coney Island "beauty show" and was known on the Coney Island Bowery as "Sadie the Tough Girl," was sent to the House of Refuge from the Essex Market police court yesterday on complaint of Market ponce court yesterdry on complaint of her mother, who lives in Ludlow street. The mother charged her with being wayward.

"I guess me old woman's right," she said, when asked what she had to say.

"Why don't you be good and stay at home?" asked the Magistrate.

Aw, wot's der ise?" replied the girl.

"Don't you want to reform?" asked the Magistrate.

"Reform—wot fer?" she said. "Not me.

frate. form—wet fer?" she said. "Not me up Coney Island and go back ter Ludiow Give up Coney Island and go back ter Ludlow street? I guess nit."
"I aint der only zirl wot trun down me mudder," sald the girl to the Gerry agent who took her away. "I've five girl frien's up dere an' every one of 'em trew down dere mudders. Ta, ta."

HEALTH BOARD'S GOT ITS EYES OPEN Ready for Any Outbreak of Disease and Dep recates Needless Alarm. President Michael C. Murphy of the Board Health issued a statement yesterday relative to the board's work in cases of contagious disease. He said in giving it out that he had been much troubled by sensational stories which had appeared in some newspapers relative to the bubonic plague and other diseases. These stories not only frightened people unnecessarily, but made the work of the Health Department offi-cers very much harder. The statement is as cers very much harder. The statement is as follows:

"It is most important that the newspapers should aid the Board of Health in their efforts to prepare the city for the coming summer and not create an alarm where a few contagious diseases might arise. This department is prepared for any and all emergencies that may arise and with the aid of the press in not giving any alarm to the public. The Health Board will go on in its usual course and watch the encreachment of any disease of any kind or character and be prepared and able to meet it."

BLIND MAN TO LECTURE IN SCHOOLS Winkelman Was Born Sightless-He Is a Skilled

Frederick Winkelman, who has been blind all his life, has been engaged by the Board of Education to deliver lectures on music in the schools and he will begin next fall. Mr. Winkeiman is 24 years old and is said to be a very capable musician, his skill as a pianist being recognized. He was educated in the Institution for the Blind at Ninth avenue and Thirtyfourth street. He became proficient in every branch taught there and was regarded as one of the most intelligent blind boys ever-educated in this city. The age limit at the institution is twenty-one years. When pupils reach that age they are supposed to be sent away. Winkelman, however, was making such ramarkable progress in music and showed such promise that it was d emed adv sable to keep him there until he had perfected his musical education. He was allowed to remain until he was twenty-four years of age, being graduated this spring, the first pupil to have the title of professor of music conferred upon him. schools and he will begin next fall. Mr. Wink

HOWARD FOUND NEAR TRENTON.

The Wandering Media Lawyer Has Lost Track of His Identity. TRENTON, June 28. - H. C. Howard, the Media, Pa., lawyer who has been missing from his home for three weeks, is in custody here. He came to this city about the first of the month and put up at Barlow's hotel where he remained several days under an assumed name. From here he went to Bordentown, but at that place he dropped from sight in a few days, despite the fact that several detectives were on his trail. Early this morning Mr. Widman, who keeps a hotel at Yardville, three mile from this city, gave a breakfast to a man who seemed out of his mind. The stranger proved to be Mr. Howard. Mr. Widman had a sus-picion that the man was Howard and induced him to ride to this city. He turned him over to picion that the man was Howard and induced him to ride to this city. He turned him over to the police.

Last Sunday Howard was discovered by Thomas D. Stell camped out in Mr. Stell's wood, near Hutchinson's Pond. Howard had built a hut out of old pieces of timber. Mr. Stell had several talks with him, and the next day went after an officer, but by the time the officer arrived Howard had disappeared. Howard's mind is weak, and he remembers very little of his wanderings since he left home. When Stell first saw Howard the latter complained that he was afraid of Stell's dog, Mr. Stell said that the dog was harmless, and took Howard's hand in his to pet the dog. When this was done Howard broke down and cried.

A personal friend called at the police station and identified Howard. The lawyer did not recognize his friend, however, and paid no attention to him.

"My name is not Henry Howard," the lawyer, and, "it's John Rees."

Howard refused to be padified until the police told him that they were going fishing and to lie down while the boys dug the balt. This quieted him and he went to sleep in the cell. Howard was formerly President of the Delaware County Trust Company.

APPLIED FOR PASSES HOME.

Michigander Didn't Like the Show He Was Enticed to Rochester to Join.

ROCKESTER, June 28.-James McKenney and his wife made application to Superintendent of the Poor Lodge this afternoon for transportation to their home in Ionia, Mich. McKenney said that he is a printer, and that his home and the home of his wife's people are in Ionia. Mich. He was in Detroit last Saturday looking for work, and he met a man who said he was the manager of a show at Summerville, near this city. He engaged McKenney to join the show and gave him $5 toward his expenses. McKenney brought his wife to Bummerville, and on arriving here, he says, he found that the work he was to do consisted of walking up and down the path at Summerville and buying a pamphlet called "The Cripple's Appeal." which was offerd for sale by a beggar. It was supposed that through his stopping to buy the pamphlet the attention of the crowd would be attracted to the beggar, and that many would buy the "appeal." McKenney did not like the job at all and did not show as much enthusiasm as he was expected to in booming the begging business. He quit yesterday and sought help from Mr. Lodge. McKenney showed letters from people out West which made it apparent that he is an honest man, and passes were given to him and his wife to their home. near this city. He engaged McKenney to

FOUND SHOT DEAD IN AN ALLEY. Hamilton Probably Went to Murder His Wife's

Paramour and Was Killed Himself. CONNERSVILLE, Ind., June 28 - About 4 o'clock this morning Ellsworth Hamilton was found lying in an alley shot through the head just above the ear with a 88-caliber revolver clasped in his right hand. James Meismer, formerly from Grand Rapids, Mich., was immediately arrested and put in jail to await the Coroner's verdict. For some months past Hamilton has been living apart from his wife. She has been living with Meismer. Yesterday Mrs. Hamilton sent for her husband and offered to do some work for him. During the interview he begged his wife to come back to him, but she refused. About 4 o'clock this morning Hamilton procured a ladder and climbed to the window of the second story where Mr. Meismer and Mrs. Hamilton were sleeping, but was knocked from the ladder with a chair in the hands o' Meismer. Shortly afterward a shot was heard in the alley near the house and Hamilton was found dead.

The impression prevails here that Hamilton killed himself with the revolver purchased yesterday for the purpose of killing Meismer and his wife. Mrs. Hamilton and Meismer will be charged with living in adultery if they escape a charge of murder. mediately arrested and put in jail to await

SOCIAL EVENTS AT NEWPORT.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 28.-Admiral Dewey came over from Narragansett Pier as usual today to attend the meeting of the Naval Policy Board, returning late in the afternoon on the torpedo boat Porter. With the exception of Admiral Dewey, all the other members of the board attended a tea and reception given by Mrs. F. E. Chadwick, wife of Capt. Chadwick, at the "Nutshell," her villa. It was a large at the "Nutshell," her villa. It was a large affair, attended not only by naval and Army people, but by many of the cottagers.

William Debon King has rented his cottage on the northerly side of Narragansett avenue, known as "Clover Patch," to Mr. T. A. Havemeyer of New York for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont went to Narragansett Pier to-day to call on Admiral and Mrs. Dewey. From the Pier Mr. Belmont will go to Kansas City to the Democratic Convention.

The Earl of Yarmouth, who is to amuse society this summer with theatricals, arrived this evening for the season. His company will begin rehearsals next week.

SYRACUSE CIVIL SERVICE INQUIRY. A Veteran Testifies How Alderman Matty Interfered in the Examination.

SYRACUSE, June 28 .- A feature of the civil service investigation being conducted by the State Commission was the testimony to-day of William W. Wheeler, a veteran, whom the local board refused to certify for appointment, but who, under a recent decision of the Court of Appeals, expects to collect the the Court of Appeals, expects to collect the salary of the position he sought. Mr. Wheeler said that about a dozen men were examined for various positions when he was, and that Alderman Matty went among those who were being examined and talked especially to two men sitting in one corner of the room. He leaned over their desks and looked at their papers. He had a lead pencil in his hand. He took up examination papers and looked at them. He took up the wirness's papers after the latter was through. Commissioner Philip Gates, who conducted the examination, made no protest.

New Railroad Building for the Six Months

Preliminary estimates by the Railroad Gazette show that the new railroad built in the United States during the first six mon hs of this year is approximately 2,025 miles, against only 1,131 miles for the corresponding period of 1899. Texas leads with 141 miles. Then follow lowa with 150 miles; Mississippi, 119; Georgia, 117; California, 104; Pennsylvania, 103, and South Carolina, 102 miles. Among the individual companies the Chicago and Northwestern leads with 156 miles. The Southern Pacific has built 97 miles; the Chicago, Burlington and Quinev, 06; the Seaboard Air Line, 95; the Gulf and Ship Island, 72; the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, 57; the Atchison, 54; and the Northern Pacific, 52 miles. Most of the building is extensions of the older lines. is approximately 2,025 miles, against only 1,181

Order for Mr. Wilcox's Arrest Granted. Supreme Court Justice Dickey in Brooklyn vesterday decided that Frederick W. Will ox, President of the Wi cox Paper Box Company of Chicago and New Yors, was guilty of contempt of court in having falled to pay his wife. Angelina A. Wilcox, alimony as directed by the Court. She secured a separation from him in November, 1888, and he was directed to pay her $9 a week alimony. He is now in arrears to the amount of $4,500. An order for his arrest was granted by Justice Dickey and unless the money is paid to-day Wilcox will be committed to Raymond Street Jail.

Mrs. Cuming Wants Allmon).

Maud Cuming moved before Justice Big shoff of the Supreme Court yesterday for counsel fee and alimony in an action for a separation against Mari Cuming, a hat manufacturer whom she married in 1871. They separated in 1897, under an agreement by which he was to furnish a home for her and give her stated sums of money. She avers he has failed to keep this agreement. Cuming said he has made such provision for her as his means warranted. The Court reserved decision.

While Josoph West of 515 West Forty-seventh street was painting the elevated railroad structure at Second avenue and Fiftieth street, yesterday, an uptown train jostled him so that he lost his balance and fell to the street, sixty feet below. He was removed to Flower Hospital, sufering from internal injuries. He will recover.

W. H. WEBB ESTATE CLIPPED

DECLINE IN THIRD AVENUE STOCK

IMPERILS GENERAL LEGACIES. Old Shipbuilder Had More Than 1,100 Share

Part of Them Not Specifically Bequeathed -Specific Legacies Likely to Be Pared Down. The probable inadequacy of the personal shipbuilder, to meet the general and in part the specific legacies of the will, owing to the depreciation in value of Third Avenue Raila contest of the will in the papers on two motions in the Surrogate's Court to require the executors to make payment on two legacies. of Third Avenue Railroad stock. He died on Oct. 30, 1899, leaving personal property which has been appraised at $692,385.51 and considerable realty. The greater part of his estate was disposed of in absolute bequests as specific legacies or tied up under trust provisions, so that the principal will in most cases revert to Webb's Academy and Home for Ship-builders. The general legacies amount to only $70,000 and the executors say that they will probably abate for the reason given above.

revert to Webb's Academy and Home for Shipbuilders. The general legacles amount to only $70,000 and the executors say that they will probably abate for the reason given above. They say:

"That the probate of the said will and codicils was delayed for a considerable time by reason of a threatened contest of the same by William E. Webb, the son of the deceased, and although the will was finally admitted to probate, it was distinctly stated by the counsel of the said William E. Webb that the right to contest the will still remained by means of a suit in the Supreme Court under the statute to test the validity of the probate thereof, and that whether the said William E. Webb would resort to such suit was still undetermined.

By the will the son was to receive the income of certain stocks, which yield more than $15,000 a year; but a codicil provided that the son was to have only $5,000 a year from these stocks and that the rest of this income was to go to the widow. To the widow were given also the Hotel Bristol, the site of which is leased property, realty at Tarrytown and Greenburg. 250 shares of Third Avenue Railroad stock and an income of $40,000 a year. To Alice M. Webb, his widowed daughter-in-law, Mr. Webb left an income of $1,200 a year from Third Avenue Railroad stock and he more allowed stock, put in trust.

William E. Webb had been an invalid for a number of years, residing in an upper part of this residence of the testator at $15 Fifth avenue. He has not been able to collect his income of $5,000 a year and he moved the Surrogate to compel the executors to pay it, saying he is without means and has a wife dependent on him. William H. Janes, a nephew of the testator, asked the Surrogate to compel the executors to pay it, saying he is without means and he moved the Surrogate to compel the executors to pay it, saying he is without means and he moved the surrogate to compel the executors to pay it, saying he is without means and he as a wife dependent on him. William H. Janes, a nephew of the testator, asked

ELM TREE HIS REFUGE.

Lost Colored Boy Lived on Cents He Earned Running Errands and Slept Outdoors.

William Hawkins, a negro whitewasher, of Washington, D. C., wrote a letter to the Gerry society a week ago asking the society's agents to look out for his ten-year-old son Frank, who, he understood, was somewhere in this city and whom he had not seen in five years. Agent Fogarty was assigned to look for the boy and last night he arrested him in the yard of a pagro tenement house at 225 West Thirtleth last three months. He ran errands for the people in the adjoining tenements and subsisted on the odd pennies he picked up. Most of his nights he spent asleep on a bench in the yard. When he got tired of the bench he climbed a big elm tree in the yard and perched aloft there. The neighbors often found him asleep in the tree.

Agent Fogarty took the boy to the rooms of the Gerry society for the night. On the way the boy said that he left his home five years ago with Mary Burke, colored, of 225 West Twenty-seventh street, and that she had taken him all over the South. She brought him here three months ago, he said, and set him adrift. No woman named Burke is known at the address.

VERDICT FOR MERZBACH. He Has Been Suing the City for Nine Years -Another Appeal.

Before Judge Giegerich and a jury in the Supreme Court yesterday, Henry Merzbach, who is now the official interpreter of the Eighth Municipal District Court, got a verdict against the city for $585. Merzbach has been suing the city for nine years. From 1885 to 1891 he was chief measenger for the District Attorne's office. He was also a notary public. The District Attorney refused to pay Merzbach's fees as such, and he charged the legal rate, twelve cents, for each service.

In 1801 he brought suit against the city for 1875.02 A verdict was rendered in his favor, but it was appealed by the city, and the verdict was reversed. There were two more trials, which resulted in disagreements. The next trial was in the city's favor. The judgment in its lavor was affirmed by the Appe late Division by a vote of 3 to 2, but the Court of Appeals reversed this. versed this.

The Corporation Counsel announced that he would appeal from yesterday's verdict.

WARRANT OUT FOR WILLIAM M. KLINK Two Clients Accuse a Jersey City Politician of Embezziement.

The Jersey City police are searching for former Assistant Prosecutor William M. Klink, who is wanted on charges of embezzlement. A warrant for his atrest has been issued by Jus tice of the Peace Maes, but the detectives have tice of the Peace Maes, but the detectives have been unable to find him. Klink has not been seen in the city for about three weeks. His law office in the Fuller Building is closed, and the furniture and law books are to be sold to satisfy judgments. The complaints on which the warrant was issued were made by F. E. Otto of 62 Prospect street and Herbert Mills of 196 Nunda avenue. They were stockholders in the Granite state Provident Association when it was placed in the hands of a receiver. Otto says that he gave Klink $1.062 to pay over to the receiver and it was never paid. Mills sais that he gave Klink $350 for the same purpose and it is still unpaid. Klink was a rising politician and had served one term in the Assembly.

$150,000 VERDICT SET ASIDE. Damage Was Claimed for a Fire Charged to Defective Insulation.

The verdict of $150,000 which Paul M. Hertzog recently obtained against the Municipal Elec tric Light Company for negligence in wiring for electric lights his former furniture store in Brooklyn, was set asi e by Justice Scott of the Supreme Court yesterday. Hertzog's store was at 1059 to 1067 Broadwin, Brooklyn. The defe dant put in electric lights for hi -in 1892, and early in 1893 the store was destroyed by a fire. It was contended that through defective insulation the electricity had fired the store. The case has been triej four times.

Justice Scott says that the evidence failed to show that the defendant company had been unskifful in stringing the wires, and that while it may have erred in judgment as to what was the best method of insulation, that would not be ground to hold it liable for the destruction of the place by fire. Brooklyn, was set asi e by Justice Scott of the

DE AGREDA WILL CASE SETTLED. Fourth Husband the Contestant-Estate Left to First Husband's Daughters.

The contest of the will of Countess Marie Louise Morse de Agreda by her fourth husband, Francis Morse de Agreda of Boston, was abandoned Morse de Agreda of Boston, was abandoned yesterday and Surrogate Thomas admitted the will to probate. The will in Bepecific terms left nothing of her estate, which was large, to her husband, and directed her executors to collect $30,000 which she said she had advanced to him. It is understood that a compromise has been made. The contestant was the fourth husband of the Countess. His name was Francis Marsebut by permission of the Legislature of Massachusetts he added de Agre la, which was the name of her third husband, the Count. Her second husband was George L. Lorillard. Her first was Edward Wight, by whom she had two daughters, Marie Louise and Caroline Frances, who inherit her estate,

THE PROPOSED NEW COAL ROAD.

A Case Which Involves the Pooling Arrange-ALBANY, June 28 .- A case which has attracted wide att ntion in railroad circles in New York and Pennsylvania was argued before the Judges of the Appellate Division to-day on certiorari proceedings, in review of the action of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners in granting the application of the Delaware Valley and Kingston Railway Company for a certificate of incorporation for a railroad to be constructed along the line of the old Delaware and Hudson Canal, from the Delaware River at Lackswaren to the Hudson River at Kingston, a Lackawaren to the Hudson River at Kingston, a distance of eighty-one miles. The application for the certificate was opposed on behalf of five different railroads: The New York Ontario and Western, the Kingston and Rondout Valley, the Port Jervis, Monticello and New York, the Eric, and the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad. These roads contended that public convenience did not demand the new road. The hearing before the Railroad Commissioners occupied thirteen days.

The promoters of the proposed new railroad contend that not one of the opponents owned a particle of real estate or other tangible property which the new company would need to acquire for its road. The theory of opposition, they say, is not that any definite property is interfered with, but that the new road might carry some freight formerly carried by them, and that this will introduce a new element of competition in the railroad situation and thus result in injury to them. The outcome of the case will be watched with great interest, for upon it depends the pooling arrangement between the anthracite coal roads, generally spoken of as the "Coal Trust."

THE SHALE BRICK WORKS NUISANCE. Gov. Rossevelt Orders a Further Investigation Before Closing the Works. ALBANY, June 28 .- Gov. Roosevelt to-day ordered a further investigation by the State Board of Health into the alleged nuisance at Catskills resulting from the operation of the Shale brick works. Several menths ago, under the Governor's direction, the State Board of Health condemned the works as a nuisance after an incondemned the works as a nuisance after an investigation had been had on the complaints of residents of Catskill. The company was directed to abate the nuisance or to close up by July 1 of this year. It is probable that the company has made some changes and has asked for another hearing, that the changed conditions in the village might be passed upon. The Governor telegraphed his order for a further investigation to Dr. Daniel Lewis, President of the State Board, to-day, at the same time notifying him don to Dr. Daniel Lewis, President of the State Board, to-day, at the same time notifying him that pending his report on the present situation at Catskill the previous order directed against the Shale brick works would be suspended.

ALBANY, June 28 -- Emil J. Schwarz of 308 West Forty-first street, New York city, has been appointed from the civil service eligible list by State Inspector of Gas Meters Jastrow Alexander as State Gas Meter Tester. The salary is $3.50 per day.

ELEVATED ROADS CONNECTED. The Union Station at East New York to Be

The new union station at Fulton street and Vesta avenue, in Brooklyn, where a loop has been constructed to connect the Kings County and Brooklyn Union Elevated Railroad systems has been completed and will be opened tems has been completed and will be opened next week. Work on the loop has been in progress for six months and has cost over $100,000. General Superintendent John C. Breckenridge of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company said: "We shall be running trains around the loop within a week. This will be a good thing for the patrons of the road, who will have increased railroad facilities without extra fare and will be privileged to have optional transfers to and from the surface cars at the depot."

WOMAN REALTY BROKER ACCUSED. Faints in Court When Charged With Fraud by

Mrs. Madeleine S. Roome of 68 East Fortyinth street, who holds the record of having sold $20,000 worth of building lots on Staten Island during last year, was a prisoner in the Jefferson Market poice court yesterday, Jefferson Market po toe court yesterday, charged by Henry Williams of 20 East Twelfth street with having sold him two lots owned by James W. Hughes of New Dorp for which he can't get a deed. He paid the price in installments, he says, with the understanding that the deed should be forthcoming after the final payment. Hughes now assures him that there is no record that Mrs. Roome sold the lots.
Mrs. Roome, who is stout and middle aged, fainted when she was arraigned. The case was adjourned and she was held under 2500 bail. djourned and she was held under $500 bail

MAYOR OF OSHKOSH DIES HERE. Practiced Law in This City Stateen Years

Ago-Death Due to Heat Apoplexy. James H. Merrill, Democratic Mayor of Oshkoch. Wis., was found dead in bed vesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. N. Kimberly, 102 East 128th street. He came here on a visit two weeks ago and was to have returned home yesterday. Returning from a visit to friends at White Plains on Wednesday, he complained of the heat. He was born in Batavia, N. Y., 54 years ago. He studied law and practised in this city until 1884, when he went West. Mr. Merrill leaves a widow, who is visiting relatives at Pierre C'ty, Mo. His death was due to expositely. as due to apoplexy.

Mr. Delano Did Know the Governor.

Mr. E. G. Delano, station agent of the Long Island Railroad at Richmond Hill, writes to THE Sun to state that it is not true, as printed in THE SUN last Saturday, that he did not recognize Gov. Roosevelt when the Governor slighted at the station on the afternoon before, or that he answered the Governor's questions concern-ing trains for Oyster Bay, and otherwise con-versed with him in entire ignorance of whom he versed with him in entire ignorance of whom he was talking to. Mr. Delano says t at he has known the Governor for a very long time, and that he feels considerably aggrieved that any one should think him unfamiliar with the face and personal appearance of Long Island's most famous resident.

Fund for Gen. Henry's Widow Amounts to $15,500. The committee which was appointed some time ago for the purpose of raising a fund for the benefit of Mrs. Guy V. Henry, the widow of the benefit of Mis. Guy V. Henry, the widow of Gen. Henry of the United States Army, met yesterday and the Treasurer's report showed a lalance on hand of about $8,500. The expenses of the committee have been exceedingly small, about $400. A resolution was adopted authorizing A. S. Frissell, Treasurer of the committee, to write to Mrs. Henry, asking her what she desires done with the money and offering, on behalf of the committee, to invest it for her if she so desires.

The Weather.

The temperature was high again yesterday from the Ohio Valley eastward to the middle Atlantic Coast and especially in New England. It was cooler in the Lake regions and thence west to Montana, where an area of high pressure was appearing. The low pressure in the St. Lawrence Valley and the high pressure on the south Atlantic Coast were drifting further apart, and in consequence it should be cooler here for the next few days. In this city yesterday the day was fair and warm with a stiff thunderstorm at sunset; wind fresh to brisk southwesterly; average humidity, 69 per cent, barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M. 29.74: 3 P. M., 29.67.

The temperature as recorded by the official mometer, and also by THE SUN's thermometer at the street level, is shown in the annexed taile

-Cfficial - Sun's - Official - Sun's - 1990, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 1859, 1900, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, 18590, WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

For New England and eastern New York, shower, o day: Saturday fair: brisk southwest to west winds. For the District of Columbia, eastern Pennsylvania New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, local showers to day; Saturday fair; fresh southwest Por western New Y rk, fair to-day and Saturday;

fresh west winds.

Appellate Division—Supreme Court—Recess.
Supreme Court—Appellate Term—Recess. Special term—Part I.—Motion calendar called at 10:30 A. M. Part II.—Ex parte matters. Parts III., IV. V. VI. and VII.—Adjourned for the term. Trial Term—Parts III. III., IV., V. VI., VII., VIII., IX. X., XI. and XII.—Adjourned for the term. Surrogate's Court—Chambers—Motion calendar called at 10:30 A. M.—For probate—Wills of Richard A Williams, Isaac Bitterman, Max Doermer, Mary T. Collins. Sopila knelp, Agnes II., Hock, William Cal agnan, Sarah Murphy, at 10:30 A. M. Trial Term—No day calendar

Collins, Sophia kneip, Agnes II, Hock, Mana Cal aghan, Sarah Murphy, at 16 ao A. M. Ti Term—No day calendar. (By Court Special Term—Court opens at 16 A.) —Motions, Trial Term—Part I, Case on N. 2717—Beede Metropolitan Street Hallway Co. Aday calendar. Part II.—Adjourned for the Vri Part III.—Cases to be sent from Part IV, for trip Part IV.—Case unfinished. Short Causes—Nos. 511 8008, 4994, 5134, 5063, 5142, 6100, 5117.

For the careless boy:

A perfect swarm of doublebreasted short trouser suits at $5; cloths that will stand any amount of abuse; colors that will laugh at rains and stains.

Extra pair knee trousers $1.25. For the careful boy:

Light-weight, double-breasted flannel suits, without lining, loose breeches with buckle and strap at knee-dainty as mamma's boy should be, $9.

Sizes 9 to 16. And hats and caps and shoes and furnishings for both kinds of boys-all kinds-2-year-olds.

ROGERS, PEET & COMPANY. 255 Broadway, cor. Watrea and 7 and 9 Watrea St. 569 Broadway, cor. Prince 1260 Broadway, cor. 32d, and 54 West 53d St.

HAD TO PUT OFF THE FUNERAL. Hearse and Coaches Were at the Door but the Coroners' Physician Was Late.

Two-year-old Emma Marius, the last victim of the fire at 34 Jackson street, in which twelve persons lost their lives, was to have been buried yesterday afternoon, but the funeral had to be postponed to the great inconvenience of the mourners, because the Coroners' physician did not appear to give a death certificate in time. Coroners' physician Williams had the case on his list. The hearse and coaches waited in front of 27 Cannon street, where the dead child's uncle lives, but Dr. Williams did not appear. At & o'clock in the afternoon, after a long wait, Bernard Griffin, the undertaker, who had Bernard Griffin. the undertaker, who had charge of the funeral, said that it would have to be postponed until to-day. The mourners were highly indignant, but the hearse and coaches went away. A few minutes later Dr. Williams came along. He did not leave a death certificate because he coulon't see the order on which the body was removed from Gouverneur Hospital, where the child died. Dr. Williams said last night that the delay wasn't his fault. He got to the house as spreadily as he could.

L'indertaker Griffin says he is going to sue the city for the loss he sustained in having to dismiss the hearse and coaches.

CHILD'S FALL GAVE FIREMEN A RUN. Mother Stood Screaming at the Window and People Thought There Must Be a Fire.

Five-year-old Tittle Lampert fell four stories from her mother's window to the yard of the tenement at 76 Third avenue yesterday morning. The fall caused a great deal of excitement in the neighborhood and incidentally a run for the Fire Department, but Tillie still lives.

She was playing at the open window when her mother, who was at work in another part. her mother, who was at work in another part, of the room, heard a shriek and turned just in time to see the little one's feet disappearing over the window ledge. Mrs. Lampert stood at the window and screamed. The situation was such as to suggest to the minds of East Siders that there was a fire somewhere, so somebody pulled a fire alarm.

When the firemen arrived and having cleared the crowd away, learned the cause of the excitement, they said things. Tillie had sustained internal injuries and was taken to Bellevue Hospital. She has a fair chance for life.

Business Matices

Mrs. Winelow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, diarrhosa. 25a bottle.

MARRIND

SMALLEY-COOK .- At Bound Brook, N. J., on Wednesday. June 27, 1900, by the Rev. J. Owen Jones William W. Smalley to Jessie M. Cook. daughter of the late Lewis D. Cook.

DIED BROKAW .- At the Carlton Hotel, London, suddenly, on June 28, 1900, Elizabeth P. Gould, beloved wife of William V. Brokaw.

Notice of funeral hereafter. BROWN .- At Elberon, N. J., on June 28, 1900. Louise C. Brown, in the 87th year of his age. Funeral services will be held at his late residence. Elberon, N. J., on Saturday, June 80, 1900, at 11

DEAN .- At Peekskill, N. Y., suddenly, on Wednesday. June 27, 1900, Marietta, wife of Moses H. Funeral services at her residence. Requa st and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Simpson pl., Peckskill, Saturday, June 30, 1900,

GILLENDER .- On Wednesday. June 27, 1900. Arthur Gillender, in his 85th year. Puneral services will be held at his late residence. 54 West 54th st., on Saturday morning, June 30, 1900, at 10 o'clock. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

HIGHE. - Memorial services will be held at Christ Church, Pelham, N. Y., on Sunday, July 1, 1900. at 4 P. M., for the late Rev. Charles Higbee, rector emeritus of that church. Relatives and friends are invited.

HOWELL .- At Mamaroneck, on Thursday, June 28, 1800, Cecilia Anson, widow of Ephraim H. Howell and daughter of the late Thomas and Martha W. Paimer, in her 77th year.

Funeral services from St. Thomas Church, Mamaroneck. on Monday, July 2, 1900, at 3 P. M. Carriages will be in waiting at Mamaroneck station on arrival of the 2:02 P. M. train from Grand Central Depot. Boston and California papers please copy.

LONARGA ... On June 27, 1900, Patrick J., father of Revs. John P. and Michael J. Lonargan. Funeral from his late residence, 9 Albany st., June 30, 1900, at 9:30 A. M., thence to St Peter's Church, Barclay st., where a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for his soul. Relatives and friends of the family, also members of Excelsior Council, No. 133, C. B. L., respectfully invited to attend. Interment at Calvary Cemetery. MAHER - At Poughkeepsle, N. Y., June 27, 1900, William, father of the Rev. John J. Maher. Funeral from his late residence, 6 Marshall at. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 30, 1900, at 10:15 A. M : thence to St. Peter's Church, where solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of

MURPHY.-At 226 West 104th st. Auguste A. Cunneely, wife of Maurice Murphy and dister of the Rev. J. J Cunneely of Hackensack, N. J.,

and the late Dr. H. C. Kunneely.
Funeral Monday morning. July 2, 1900, at 9:30 from the Church of the Ascension, West 107th st. near Broadway Kindly omit flowers. NOYES .- On Wednesday, June 27, 1900, Samuel

Funeral services at the First Presbyterian Church of Tremont, New York city, Washington av.,

between 174th and 175th sta. Friday, June 29. 1900, at S P. M. Interment in Albany, N. T. RICE. - At the residence of his son, 66 Grante st. Brooklyn, on Tuesday, June 26, 1960, William E. Rice, in the 64th year of his age. Funeral services at Goshen, N. Y., on Friday, June Aiken Noyes.

29, 1900. Goshen papers please copy. CYPRESS HILLS CEMETERY. Office. I Madison av., corner 23d st., N. Y.

New Publications.

50C.-KIPLING'S 'Fleet in Being," Finding's "Tom Jones" Candida PRATT. 161 6th ave.